6th Annual Uncorked: A Case for Wine

The Casino in Chicago was bursting with more than 300 guests of The Auxiliary Board of the Art Institute, during the organization's annual fundraiser in February. The elegant evening included wine tasting, a seated dinner, raffle, and live and silent auctions. Auxiliary Board president Dustin O'Regan welcomed guests before Christie's auctioneer Steve Zick began the lively auction. Co-chaired by Lauren Peterson and Phoebe DePree, both of Chicago, and Adam Gerchen of Winnetka, the night raised more than $250,000, going directly toward supporting the museum's various exhibitions.
